Program Details:

On September 5, 2023, Teachers Day was observed with tremendous fanfare in honor of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan's birthday and in observance of National Teachers Day. Every year, the Department of Artificial Intelligence & Data Science enthusiastically commemorates this milestone. The purpose of the AISA Committee's celebration of this occasion is to support students' ideas and innovations.

Date: 05th September 2023

Time: 01.00 pm to 03.15 pm

The event took place in classroom number B-102, which was exquisitely festooned with flowers. The program's guest, Dr. S.G. Rathod (HOD, Computer Department), was invited. Gifts and flowers were used to greet the teacher and guest. At 1 p.m., the event was opened by Mr. A. K. Bhise, the Head of the AI & DS Department, who garlanded Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan's image. In a brief lecture, Dr. S.G. Rathod discussed Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and the meaning behind Teachers' Day. For teachers, there are a variety of games and activities. Moreover, on Teachers' Day, a student from SE AI & DS gave a lovely speech. The head guest and the host expressed gratitude for the exquisitely planned program. Ultimately, the show concluded with a cake cutting. The program was a great success.
